Shhh!!!
I'm hitching a ride like you -- but Old Willie doesn't know.

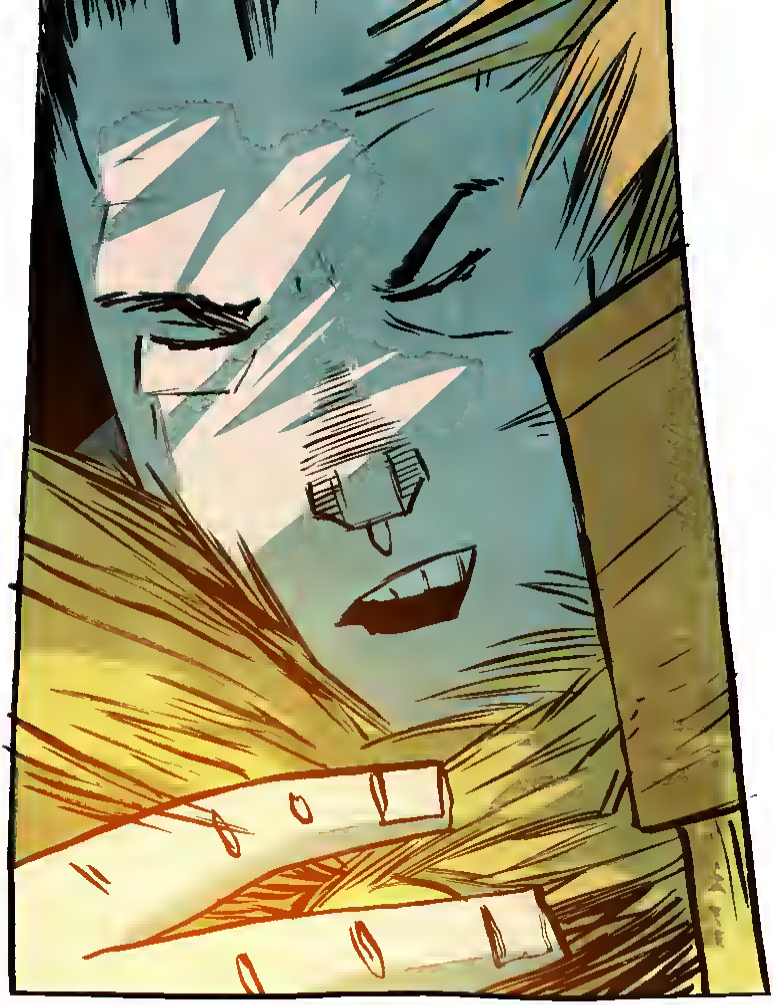
He seems nice to me.

You don't think he'd give you a ride?

I know he wouldn't. He doesn't like me.
Please don't tell him I'm back here.



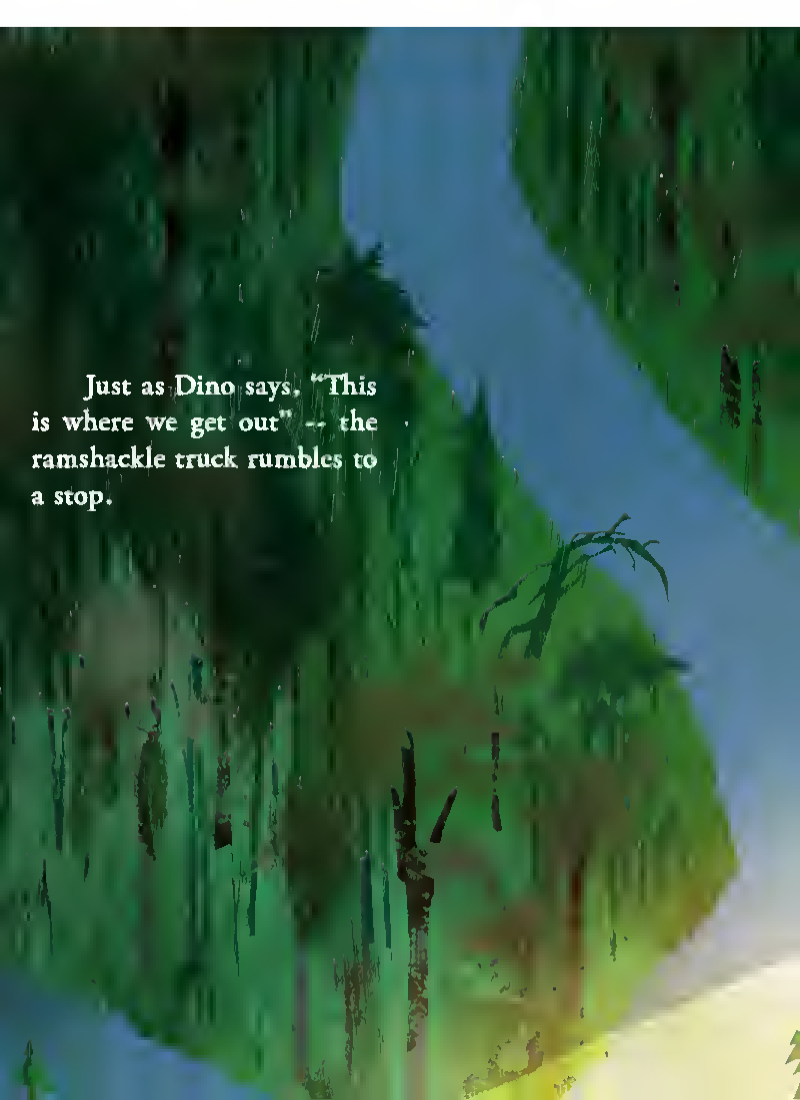
Okay.

Did you say you were looking for a plane that crashed around here?
It's my dad's.

I was in it when it started going down, but I got thrown out before it crashed.
But my dad and Simon...
...I think they were still inside when it hit the ground.

Well, we're both in luck!
I know where the crash site is --

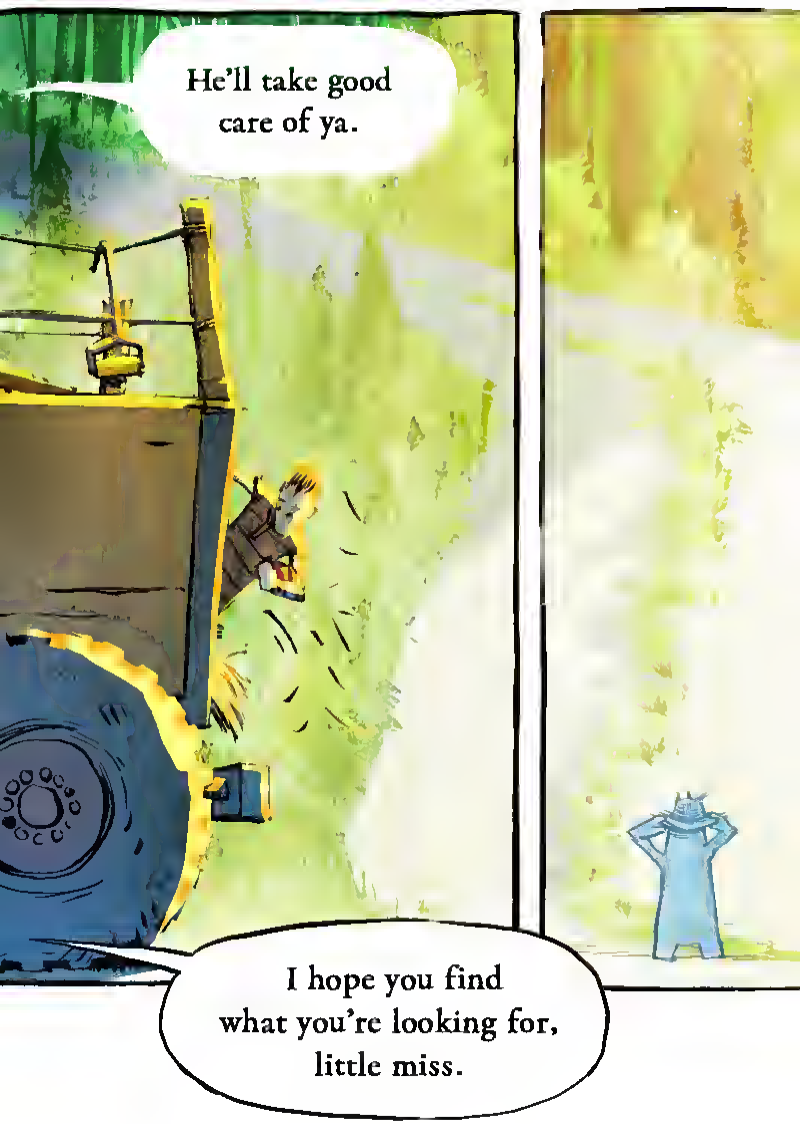
-- it should be just past where the next road turns.
That's where I'm headed myself.



Just as Dino says, "This is where we get out" -- the ramshackle truck rumbles to a stop.

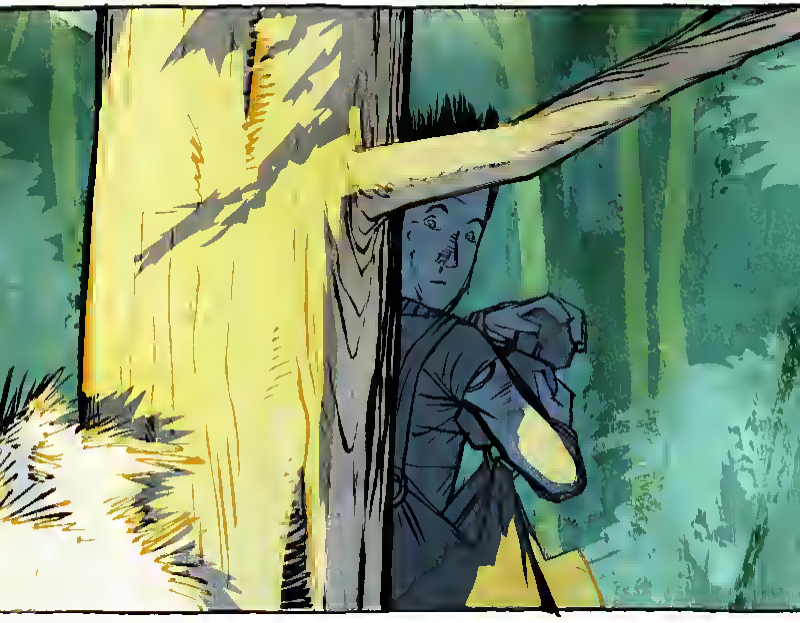
Thank you, mister Willie.

Aw, it ain't nothin'. Now just follow that road on up to Henry's place.



He'll take good care of ya.
I hope you find what you're looking for, little miss.

Me, too.



He was nice.
They both were.

Bye, Friend!
Keep your eyes open!

Uh oh!
